The Summit Messenger

Dear Church,

After several weeks at MSCC, I'm still meeting new people and connecting names with faces. I'm learning something new about the church and how things work every day. I'm looking forward to becoming friends, visiting in your homes, fellowshiping over meals, joining in fun activities, studying together, and all the other joys of being your pastor.

If you are free after Sunday worship, let's get lunch together at your favorite spot. On Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays, stop in and see me at the church office during the day; my door is always open to you. Mondays and Fridays are generally my days off, but I am always available. If I'm not at the church, find me at my home in New Castle at 205 Bundy Ave. We'll enjoy a hot beverage and conversation on my patio under the tree. If you need to contact me, my cell phone (call or text) and email address are on the cover of this newsletter.

"I thank my God for every remembrance of you, always in every one of my prayers for all of you, praying with joy for your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now." (Philippians 1:3-5)

Grace & Peace,
Justin

FAITH FEST

September 10th - 11 a.m.

Following our 10 a.m. worship service we'll gather outside for a community celebration! We'll have food, games and fellowship, so invite your friends and neighbors!

The meat for the meal is being provided but if anyone would like to contribute a side dish it would be welcomed - let Katy Stevenson or Rachel Homuth know what you're bringing.

Fantasy Football League

Under the direction of Bryce Stevenson, Commissioner, MSCC initiated a Fantasy Football League. The draft was held on August 27th following the worship service. Watch for updates on as the competition unfolds this season!

If you can help with Latchkey this semester, please contact Pastor James. Volunteers are needed 3 to 5:30 p.m. on days that Blue River schools are in session.

The August Christian Community Youth Rally was held at White Branch Church, Hagerstown, and Pastor James was the keynote speaker.

small groups

"Soup and Bread" Terry and Jere Yoakum invite you to their home in Mt. Summit for dinner, prayer, and discussion on Sunday evenings at 6 p.m. starting October 1st. They'll provide a main dish, bread, and drinks; guests are welcome to bring side dishes. Each week they will send group attendees a devotional message that is thought provoking and restates scripture in modern terms. These will be springboards for sharing our faith and life journeys. The Yoakum's address is 104 Maple Street. Contact Terry with any questions (765-686-2422). It would also be helpful to message her that you will be attending so she and Jere know how much food to prepare.

"Wine & Dine" This group is resuming for the fall and winter. All who'd like go out for a meal once a month are invited. Contact Rob Stevenson (524-1101) if you'd like to be notified about future gatherings and included in the reservation.

Ball State Football Rob Stevenson has four tickets for home games in Muncie and is inviting anyone who would like to join him. He can get additional tickets if more people are interested. Just let him know!

"Wine & Dine" initial group dinner for the fall was at El Chile Poblano in New Castle in August.
