From Pastor James

Our youth are going to Give Kids the World (GKTW) in Orlando from June 1st to June 8th. Many of you have asked, "Why GKTW?" The answer begins with a man named Henri Landwirth (Henri's bio: <https://www.gktw.org/about/henri-landwirth.php>), and his vision behind GKTW (<https://www.gktw.org/about/>). This place was created to give a magical experience with a vacation that means the world to children with critical illnesses and their families.

Our youth group will spend a week down there, helping these families make memories that will need to last a lifetime. Serving meals in their cafeteria or taking it to their villa. Operating the rides and other attractions at GKTW. We are living out Matthew 25:40, "Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."

This is not an inexpensive trip to travel down, find a place to stay, have meals together, etc., but it has always been worth the cost. Not only are we making a difference with these families, but every youth and adult whom I've taken to GKTW in the past has come back transformed.

Please check out the links above to learn more about GKTW. I would also love to share stories of my personal experience with you.

3/8	51	$2,013
3/15	52	$1,188

The prayer vigil will be in the sanctuary following the Good Friday service. We encourage those in attendance to stay for this added meaningful time and focus their prayers on the seven last words of Christ on the cross. You may stay as long as you wish, then leave in silence. If you cannot attend that evening, we encourage you to set aside some prayer time at home on Friday and Saturday as Easter day approaches.

We will participate in the Easter Special Offering on Palm Sunday, March 29th and Easter Sunday, April 5th. The theme, This Day: When Love Answers, invites us to reflect on the resurrection promise found in

John 20:18 and to celebrate the ways God’s love continues to bring hope and new life. The offering provides vital support for the general ministries of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). You may give in person (special envelopes by the offering plates), by mailing your offering to the church, or you may give via Givelify. Please write “Easter Special Offering” on the memo line of your check. For more information about the Easter Special Offering, please visit bit.ly/dmfeasteroffering
