Mt. Summit
Christian
Church

Dear Church,

In the Gospel of Matthew Chapter 9, Jesus calls Matthew the tax collector to become his disciple. After heeding this call, having his friends meet Jesus, and witnessing Jesus' ministry to people, Jesus asks Matthew to do something: "The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field." The story immediately picks up in Chapter 10 with Jesus sending out Matthew and the other eleven disciples to minister to people in need.

Notice what happened here: Matthew spends time with Jesus. What Jesus cares about becomes what he cares about. Matthew is directed to a need by Jesus and instructed to pray for it. And finally, Matthew becomes the answer to his prayer when he is sent out.

Here's what I want you to grasp: What we pray for should be directed by Jesus. And what we pray for sets the agenda for what we do, and where we go, as a church.

If prayer sets the agenda for the church, then what are you praying for? I recently added a new column for prayer in the weekly email that is sent out each Thursday, called "Pastor's Prayer Requests." In addition to our usual prayer concerns, I want you to follow what I share and join me in praying on a wider scale: Pray for the people of Mt. Summit. Pray for growth in spiritual maturity, workers, and resources for our church. Pray for opportunities and boldness to share the gospel of Jesus. Pray for the wider Church. What can you add?

Just like Matthew, you might become the answer to your prayers.

Grace & Peace,
Justin

Help Decorate the Church!

After the Thanksgiving meal on the 19th, volunteers are needed to bring the boxes of decorations from the loft to the library. This will allow others to set-up in advance of Hanging of the Greens, if they desire.

Hanging of the Greens will then be on the 26th, after the worship service.
